LinkWheel Sites

These are sites you connect to each other, building greater and greater amounts of link power. You can then connect the entire structure to your Money site, to pass all that link power to it and get it ranked higher in Google.

Some examples of the structures that can be created are: Link Chains, Closed Link Wheels, Open Link Wheels and Random Link Wheels.

To do this, you will need to:

- Register" at every site
- Create content to post on every site (and that content must be UNIQUE, i.e. you can only use an article once, and only at one site)
- Place links in your content, that link to another site and/or your Money site, and change those links in every article, for every different site you want to link to
- Submit each article you want to post, to each site, one article at a time, and one site at a time

RSS Feed Directories

Once you have your central link structure in place, you then want to further "boost" the ranking power of those link sites. To do this, you need to create different types of links and point them to the sites in your Link Wheel. (At the same time, you can also point some of these new links, to your Money site as well.)

In this case, you use RSS feeds that can be created for each of your link sites (and your Money site), to boost their rank power. You then submit these feeds to Directories, created specifically to collect and archive, RSS feeds.

To do this, you will need to:

- Create an RSS feed for every site in your Link Wheel (and your Money site as well)
- Submit each feed, to each RSS directory, one directory at a time
- Point each feed back to the site/sites you wish to boost

These sites are:

Social Bookmark Sites

Another method to further "boost" the ranking power of your link sites, is to use Social Bookmark sites. In this case, you "bookmark" your sites, at other sites created specifically to collect and archive people's personal bookmarks, which again boosts the rank power of your link sites.

To do this, you will need to:

- Register" at every Social Bookmark site
- Write a "bookmark" for every site in your Link Wheel (and your Money site as well)
- You have to write a different "bookmark" for each of your link sites (and Money site) and preferably, a different version for each Social Bookmark site you submit to
- Submit each "bookmark", to each Social Bookmark site, one Bookmark site at a time
- Point each bookmark back to the site you wish to boost

Forum Software

A final, additional "boost" to the ranking power of your link sites, is to use Forum Profile backlinks. In this case, you sign up at forums, create a profile and in that profile, you can link back to one of your sites.

- To do this, you will need to:
- Register" at every Forum
- Write a profile for each Forum
- Include a link pointing back to your chosen site
- Since these links are low power, then to be effective, you must create dozens (or hundreds!) of them.

Rank Builder allows access to over 700 high PR forums!

Conclusion

As you can see, for anything more than a trivial number of sites, doing this manually can become VERY time-consuming! And of course, for multiple articles, feeds, bookmarks, etc. - each submitted to multiple sites - it can get VERY confusing!

Rank Builder relieves you of all the hassle of doing everything discussed above, plus of course, reduces the time involved to mere minutes.
